Fruitfulness Ambassadors CONFERENCE

THE FATAL GAMES OF INFIDELITY

EXPOSING THE GAME; UNDERSTANDING THE COST.
CHOOSING THE WAY OUT.

28 NOVEMBER 2026

09:00 – 17:00

THE CATHEDRAL UNITY HALL,
MTHATHA

What happens when the choices we make in relationships begin to cost us more than we ever imagined?

Infidelity is often spoken about as an incident—someone cheated, someone was hurt, trust was broken. But beneath the incident are deeper questions about choices, boundaries, identity, temptation, responsibility, consequences and the possibility of restoration.

The Fruitfulness Ambassadors Conference: The Fatal Games of Infidelity creates a safe and thought-provoking space to have the conversations we often avoid.

This is not simply a conference about exposing what went wrong. It is an opportunity to understand the game, confront its cost, examine our choices and consider what it takes to build healthier, more fruitful lives and relationships.

THIS CONFERENCE IS FOR YOU IF...

- ✓ You want to understand the complexities behind infidelity rather than simply judge the outcome.
- ✓ You want to have honest conversations about relationships, boundaries, trust, responsibility and restoration.
- ✓ You are navigating the impact of infidelity—personally, relationally or within your wider family or community.
- ✓ Or perhaps you simply believe that healthy relationships, responsible choices and accountable living are essential to building a fulfilled life.

COME WITH QUESTIONS.
LEAVE WITH PERSPECTIVE.

Through keynote conversations, reflection, table discussions and an engaging panel dialogue, participants will explore:

How the game begins — and how seemingly small choices can become destructive patterns.

Why people continue playing even when they understand the potential consequences.

The impact of infidelity on individuals, partners, families and future generations.

The role of responsibility and accountability when choices have caused harm.

The possibility of restoration and what rebuilding can require.

The choices we can make differently to cultivate fruitful lives, fruitful relationships and enduring legacies.
